

23 May 1973

Report on National Coin Week for the Totem Coin Club

1. Exhibits: Alan Arima entered a display on Coin Collecting in the Cirricular Fair at the Airport Heights School. The Exhibit consisting of a Type Set of 20th Century U.S. Coins and some examples of older issues, A display of reference books used by collectors (Red Book, Brown & Dunn Etc.), Coin Newspapers, a Whitman folder of Unc Lincoln Cents 1941- date to show how coins are assembled in a collection, and a poster on Coin Collecting, National Coin Week and the Totem Coin Club. This display was later used in the school office during Coin Week itself.

Mike Gallagher, who at the time of National Coin Week was one of the newest members of the Totem Coin Club, took the initiative and put together a display consisting of American Coins (Lg Cent types, Silver coins, as well as examples of large and small currency. Some Hawaiian coins were displayed, as well as a complete set of Palmer, Alaska ARRC Bingles. This display was at the Ptarmigan School for one week.

Dell Arima and Ray Grier, display for one week at the National Bank of Alaska (Government Hill Branch). Display of Silver from Ore to Ingot, Uses of Silver, Display of type coins with Silver Ingots bearing designs used on U.S. Coins. Display also advertising Totem Coin Club and National Coin Week.

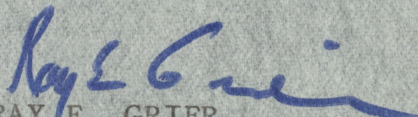

The Totem Coin Club received applications for Four new members during National Coin Week.

People and Places participating in National Coin Week for the Totem Coin Club:

1. Airport Heights School
2. Ptarmigan School
3. National Bank of Alaska (Government Hill Branch)
4. Mike Gallagher
5. Alan Arima
6. Dell Arima
7. Ray Grier
8. STU JAMES

The Totem Coin Club has a membership of ^{approx.} 100, and is ANA #LC-12

NOTE: ADDITIONAL DISPLAY OF U. S. PAPER MONEY AT MILITARY INSTALLATION BY STU JAMES.

RAY E. GRIER
Coin Week Representative
Totem Coin Club
Anchorage, Ak.

TOTEM COIN CLUB
Box 4-979
Anchorage, Ak. 99509